

Positive Media Internships (PMI) Home-based Internship FAQs

What is PMI's Mission Statement?

The mission of PMI is to support and leverage positive media that entertains, engages and inspires audiences worldwide.

What are the benefits of being a remote intern?

Home-based interns have the opportunity to be involved in the huge mission of spreading positive media throughout society while earning rewards and recognitions through our incentive program which they can put on their resumes.

Is experience necessary?

Experience in the fields relating to film production and distribution are certainly an asset but not required.

Is the PMI a paid or volunteer position?

The PMI Home-based Internship is a part time volunteer opportunity for you to collaborate with our team from your home location.

How old are the interns?

Interns will range in age from college, post college, and young professionals.

Will flexibility with time be a problem?

The beauty of the home-based internship is you can offer your talents to the PMI mission when it works with your schedule. Many of our remote interns work or attend school full-time, but utilize their free time to assist with our ongoing projects.

How many hours a week does a remote intern work?

Home-based interns dedicate on average 10-20 hours per week. This will depend on the availability of each intern.

What is the time period of the internship?

The home-based internship is an ongoing internship which allows people around the world who feel called to promote positive media to be involved in our mission.

What are we looking for?

People who want to volunteer and dedicate their time and talents to help carry out the mission of PMI: to promote movies that matter and have the potential to make a meaningful difference in people's lives.

What are the characteristics you are looking for in an intern?

Honesty, dedication, the ability to work well with others, and a spirit of seeing the work we are doing from the perspective of God.

What skills are considered most useful for success in the position?

Personal and professional organization, quickly accomplishing tasks, sales skills and computer proficiency are some of the many skills that will be advantageous to this position.

What projects/tasks will I be involved in as a remote intern?

Currently we are working on completing one of the largest databases worldwide. Home-based interns also help expand the PMI mission by setting up movie nights in their local area, promoting positive media amongst their friends and through different networks such as Facebook and My Space.

Who supervises tasks given to remote interns?

In our office we have full-time interns which manage the work distributed to home-based interns.
